

LINGO

GERMAN (DEUTSCH)

German (Deutsch) is a member of the western group of the Germanic branch of the Indo-European language family and one of the world's major languages. Spoken by more than 120 million people in 38 countries of the world, German is — like English and French — a pluricentric language with Germany, Austria and Switzerland as the three main centers of usage.

Worldwide, German accounts for the most written translations into and from a language. Furthermore it belongs to the three most learned and to the ten most spoken languages worldwide (according to the Guinness Book of Records).

It is an interesting language to equip yourself with. With its long cultural and political history, learning the language is an unique experience in itself. In Lingo language, we combined the teaching of the language with the language's history and cultural stories. By the end of the modules, you will find yourselves not just speaking German but also understanding the Germans.
